

Women in Energy Internship Program

— ENERGY ENGINEER

About the Organization

MIRECK - Metal Industry and Renewable Energy Cluster of Kosovo is a non-governmental organization that aims to empower the business community in developing and advancing products and services in the Metals and Renewable Energy sector through academic cooperation with the Faculty of Mechanical Engineering and the Ministry of Trade and Industry, by promoting innovation, research, collaboration and skills development and establishing relations with investors.

Job Description

The engineer has these job duties:

- Engaging in the technical work of the energy field of the organization;
- Supporting clean energy-related projects;
- Energy audit in the industry and metal sector;
- Developing an updated technical report.

Qualifications

In addition to the general criteria, the engineer must also have these qualifications:

- University degree in engineering is preferred;
- Good management skills;
- Knowledge of the energy field;
- Ability to work in group;
- Good knowledge of English.

Apply

millenniumkosovo.org/womeninenergy